Appointments and Announcements

Simonetti

Today

11.00 a.m.—Father and Son Service.

12.10 p.m.—Church School. Mr. Bentall, Sr., for 32 years a Sunday-school Superintendent, will bring greetings to the church school and will address a combined session of the Ladies' Bible Class, Happy Hearts, Stars Wohelos and Pilots Club.

Thome
Shelley

7.00 p.m.—Burning of the Mortgage. The total indebtedness on the church (including a loan from the city following the cyclone) was $41,000.00. On this principal during the period from 1912-1944, a total of $41,705.00 was paid in interest alone. For every dollar we borrowed, we paid two. We rejoice together today and give thanks to God that our church has at last been completely cleared of this heavy debt.

Allitsen

8.15 p.m.—Informal reception in the church parlors.

Howard Bentall

We appreciate the services this morning of Bandsman E. S. Mang, who is playing the "Last Post" and "Reveille" by kind permission of O/C Lieutenant Col. B. A. Cooke, No. 12 District Depot.

We extend a very warm welcome today to our minister's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bentall and his brother, Robert G. Bentall, who have come from Vancouver for this historic occasion.

Baptism

Howard Bentall

The ordinance of baptism will again be administered on Sunday evening, November 26th. Mr. Bentall will be very happy to interview any one regarding our Lord's appeal and command.

Our Men and Women in Uniform

sq.

Wagner

We are again writing a Christmas letter to all our men and women on active service. The letter to those overseas will be mailed this week. If there is someone to whom you would like the minister to write and who you think might not be on our list (which numbers 180 at the present time) please phone the minister's secretary, Mrs. J. E. Dove, at the Church Office.

Our Covenant

Having, as we trust, been brought by Divine Grace to receive the Lord Jesus Christ, and to give up ourselves to Him, we do now, relying on His gracious aid, solemnly covenant with one another that we will walk together in brotherly love, as becomes the members of a Christian Church; that we will exercise an affectionate care and watchfulness over, and faithfully admonish and entreat one another, as occasion may require, that we will not forsake the assembling of ourselves together, nor neglect to pray for ourselves and others; that we will endeavor to bring up such as may be under our care, in the nurture and admonition of the Lord, and by a pure and lovely example to win our kindred and acquaintance to the Saviour, to holiness, and to eternal life; that we will rejoice at one another's happiness, and endeavor, with tenderness and sympathy, to bear one another's burdens and sorrows; that we will seek, by divine aid, to live circumspectly in the world, practicing and advocating temperance, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, and since we have been voluntarily buried by baptism and raised again from the emblematical grave, so there is on us a special obligation henceforth to lead a new and holy life; that we will strive together and contribute of our means for the support of a faithful evangelical ministry, and for the spread of the Redeemer's Kingdom among men; and that, through life, amidst evil report and good report, we will humbly and earnestly seek to live to the glory of Him who hath called us out of darkness into His marvelous light.
